Data Protection and Regulatory Statement

The company is registered with the Information Commissioners Office as a Data Controller, we comply fully with the Data Protection Act 1998 and its successor the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) 2018.

You are providing your personal information to the company as requested on this document for the sole reason that the company can assist you to obtain the mortgage, loan, lease or other facility which constitutes your borrowing requirement. In processing this information our company staff may share this data with carefully selected third parties (Lending Partners) who may either be a direct lender or a packager / broker of such services whom the company believes can satisfy your borrowing requirement.

We take our responsibilities under GDPR seriously and at all times we will respect your privacy and legal rights, the company will never sell or distribute any data you have provided to us to any unrelated or unconnected third party. We may contact you on going to inform you about relevant products and services only if you have given us specific permission to do so and at any time you may opt out of receiving such contact and information from the company.

In considering your application our lending partners may wish to search your records at selected credit reference agencies. If so this may add to your records the details of the search made and this may be seen by other organisations that carry out such searches. An association between you and any named partner or spouse may be created at the credit reference agency. This may link your financial records, each of which may be taken in to account in all future applications by either or both of you, if an association already exists then your application may be assessed with reference to these associated records. This situation will continue until one of you successfully files a disassociation at the credit reference agency.

Your information will be shared and processed with our Lending Partners to:

- Help make decisions about credit, loan or mortgage applications and credit related services
- Establish the best possible source of financial support to satisfy your borrowing requirements
- Trace debtors, recover debt, prevent money laundering and financial fraud

It is important you give us accurate information on the document. In the process of assessing your borrowing requirement our lending partners may require to check your details with fraud prevention agencies and if you give us false or inaccurate personal information this may be recorded at such agencies.

The information you have provided to the company on this document either on paper or in electronic format will be stored securely on our files and systems at our premises at the address given below.

Should you wish to be provided with the details of the data and information the company or any partner lenders or credit agencies (who may receive your personal information as part of this process) hold on you please either telephone or write to the company for the attention of the managing director.

You have the legal right to be provided with these details and to receive a copy of all data that the company hold about you, at your request the company will destroy all data that we hold about you and remove all records from our systems. Some lending partners and credit agencies to whom your data has been provided may require you to apply in writing and a fee may be payable for the provision of such information.

Should you wish to view our complete Data Protection Statement and Client Privacy Policy this is available either from our web site at the web domain shown below or by writing to the company at the address shown below.

Declaration:

I have read and agree with the Data Protection statement above, I consent to giving the company the authority to use the data I have provided in order to provide services to me.
